- (2) The wage agreement is with effect from the 1st of January, 2022, and to be implemented pending registration.
- (3) This increase has been agreed to between the federation of printing, packaging and newspaper proprietors of Zimbabwe (Federation of Master Printers) representing the employers and the Zimbabwe Graphical Workers' Union representing the workers for the printing, packaging and newspaper industry.

Collective Bargaining Agreement: Printing, Packaging and Newspaper Industry

- (4) Employers who can pay in United States dollars are encouraged to do so.
- (5) Employers who are not in a position to implement the new increase shall, within 22 working days from date of this agreement, apply for exemption as provided for in the industry's Collective Bargaining Agreement which is Statutory Instrument 174 of 2012.
- (6) The salary for every employee with at least two (2) years service with the same employer shall be notched 3% per annum above the set minimum up to 10%. Notching is to be done on the anniversary of each eligible employee until his/her salary reaches 10% above the minimum.
- (7) It is recommended that should employers who are paying wages/salaries above the stipulated minimums be in a position to award the percentage increase on actuals, they should do so. However, if they cannot afford to do so they must award not less than the dollar increase in column "c" of the wage notice.
- (8)
 - (a) For the purposes of general fund contributions, deductions are based on gross earnings. Such NEC contributions are to be paid no later than the tenth (10th) day of each month following that in which the deductions were made from the employees' wages.
 - (b) Employers who are paying salaries in United States dollars are encouraged to remit contributions in the same currency.
- (9) This wage agreement is binding to all employers and employees in the Printing, Packaging and Newspaper Industry whether registered or not with the National Employment Council for the Printing, Packaging and Newspaper Industry.
